

ESSENTIAL
ENDODONTICS

MEET THE DOCTOR

Dr. Malagise was born in a small town outside of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He graduated summa cum laude from the University of Pittsburgh in 2012 with a Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology while pursuing his interests in biomedical research.

Cory Malagise, D.M.D. ENDODONTIST

Dr Malagise is an Ivy League trained dentist and he received his Doctor of Medicine in Dentistry in 2018 from the University of Pennsylvania with Honors in Clinical Dentistry. Shortly after finishing his DMD degree, he initiated his training in Endodontics at Texas A&M University College of Dental Medicine and anticipates graduation with his specialty certificate in Endodontics in September 2020. Dr. Malagise is an active member of the American Association of Endodontics, The American Dental Association, and the DFW Endodontic society.

Dr. Malagise prides himself in making a personal connection with all of his patients. He strives to understand the emotions and goals of his patients while letting his sentiments of concern and empathy guide him in developing rapport with and caring for his patients. Creating trust and establishing effective communication with each and every patient is paramount for Dr. Malagise. He respects and cherishes the opportunity to help patients overcome the disease processes that are causing them discomfort and disrupts their normal life routine allowing them to physically heal.

Dr. Malagise is proud to call Texas his new home and has enjoyed indulging in all the outdoor leisure activities that Texas has to offer. He enjoys hunting, fishing, and generally being outdoors enjoying all that Mother Nature has to offer. He likes to travel, spend time with his friends, and being involved in the local community.
